

To: Heads of Departments and Agencies

General Manager, High Pressure
Gas Safety Management Division, Environment, Safety and Health Promotion Office
Takahiro Umeno
Director, Low Temperature Center
Takashi Kimura

Training Course for Safe Handling of High Pressure Gas and Liquefied Gas (Notification)

As part of the safety education based on the High Pressure Gas Safety Act and the Kyushu University High Pressure Gas Hazard Prevention Regulations, a practical skills seminar, as announced in the Kyushu University Sokankan No. 138, will be held as follows.

1. Subjects

Successful completion of e-learning course

2. Contents

(1) Handling of high-pressure gas cylinders (2) Handling of low-temperature refrigerants
(3) Piping joint installation

3. Venue

district	Date and Time	Location	remarks
hospital	Tuesday, November 19 10:30am-11:30am	Collaboration Station I Joint Seminar Room	Japanese (language)
Chikushi	Tuesday, November 19 3:00 p. m. - 4:00 p. m.	3rd floor, Research and Development Bldg. Lecture Room 301 Lecture Room 303	Japanese (language)
Ito	Wednesday, November 20 10:30am-11:30am	Low Temperature Center	Japanese (language)
Ito	Wednesday, November 20 3:00 p. m. - 4:00 p. m.	Low Temperature Center	English (language)

Depending on the number of participants, the Hospital and Chikushi areas may be cancelled and participants may be asked to take the course at other venues.

*The maximum number of participants in each district is 30.

4. Application method and deadline

Please access the following URL and register for the course by 12:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 6, 2024.

<https://ltc.kyushu-u.ac.jp/index.php/seminars/demo/>

5. other

Participation in the practical skills workshop is optional.

The content of the course is the same as that conducted in December 2023.

Contact: Environment and Safety Management
Section, General Affairs Department

Contact person in charge: Okabe, Esaki (TEL:
90-2074)

E-mail: syakankyo@jinu.kyushu-u.ac.jp